Summary of Examiner Interview under 37 CFR § 1.133

Sir:

Date of Interview

The undersigned Applicants' representative requested the Interview that took place on June 21, 2006 in this application.

Participants

Examiner Dennis G. Bonshock;
Graham V. Poor (inventor);
Saurav Chatterjee (Chief Architect of Assignee) and Applicants' representative Barbara Courtney (Reg. No. 42,442)

Type of Interview

The interview was telephonic.

Items discussed

Applicants' disclosure was discussed. Claim 1 was discussed. Cited reference U.S. Patent 6,442,251 (Maes, et al) was discussed.

Substance of Interview

Applicants discussed the invention in detail with reference to the specification. Applicants explained the meaning of the claim terms as stated in the specification. Applicants explained why claim elements (as defined in the specification) were not present in, or suggested by, the cited references. For example, Applicants explained that the "control file" claimed is not found in the references. Applicants also explained that "non-native" indicates that a program is not written to be executed on a particular device. This is in contrast to the interpretation of the Examiner: that "non-native" indicates that a program is not current stored on a device.

Respectfully submitted,
Courtney Staniford & Gregory LLP
